We go North to begin the color season to Agawa Canyon in Canada. We will cross the Mighty Mac Bridge to the Upper Peninsula for our stay is at Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan at the Lockview Motel right across from the Soo Locks. We will have a ride with the Freighters on the Soo Locks Boats through the Soo Locks in Michigan's oldest city, Sault Ste. Marie. A visit to the Upper &

Lower Tahquamenon Falls for the beauty of nature. The chocolate colored water and the beautiful fall leaves are to be remembered. Whitefish Point, MI is the home of the Shipwreck Museum where evidence of the unrelenting fury of the Lake Superior. Lake Superior has earned the reputation of being the most treacherous of the Great Lakes. Artifacts and exhibits tell the stories of sailors and ships who braved the waters of Superior and those who were lost to its menacing waves. All aboard one of the most popular train excursions in North America. The Agawa tour train has undergone a dramatic upgrade. It is more than a shiny new paint job, including creature comfort features such as new carpeting, bigger windows and all new tinted glass as well as some unique high-tech additions. This is where the updated cars truly shine. As the train winds its way through this one-of-a-kind landscape an advanced GPS triggered commentary reveals intimate details about the region. Passengers will learn about upcoming points of interest along the line as well as the region's rich history with stories of the Ojibway, fur traders, explorers and entrepreneurs that opened up this vast wilderness. Another high-tech addition is the train's locomotive mounted digital cameras allowing the passengers to experience an engineer's "eye view" via the numerous flat screen monitors that have been installed throughout the coaches. Just when you thought you had seen it all you will travel 500 feet down to the floor of the Agawa Canyon where you will have 90 minutes to experience the pristine beauty up close. Enjoy scenic walks on graveled trails, cascading waterfalls, a quite picnic lunch beside the Agawa River. Or climb up more than 300 stairs to the breathtaking Lookout, perched 250 feet above the canyon floor. All these upgrades have made the famous Agawa Canyon Tour Train experience even better, and promise first-time riders as well as those who have previously enjoyed the tour a unique, engaging means in which to enjoy the best that northern Ontario has to offer. A fast, smooth, quiet ride is the Catamaran to Mackinaw Island. Mackinaw Island is a place where you can enjoy shopping is unique and the horse is king. Returning on our Catamaran to the Mainland for our journey home.
