A DAY IN POMPEII
Cincinnati Museum Center

JULY 24, 2012

Sheryl Godby, Escort

$145 per person
Deposit of $20 with reservation
Balance Due June 24, 2012

Relax and Enjoy the ride down to Cincinnati. On arrival we board the River Queen of BB Riverboats for a Lunch and Cruise on the Ohio River. The afternoon is spent at the “A Day in Pompeii” Exhibit. In A.D. 79 Pompeii was frozen in time by the catastrophic eruption of Mt. Vesuvius, burying everything in its path for more than 1700 yrs. The same as and debris from Vesuvius’ unpredicted eruption that destroyed the city, is also the same thing that preserved it. The day in daily life in Pompeii and there are even body casts of the victims eerily preserved in their final moments. Pompeii’s archaeological treasures rarely leave Italy, and this national touring exhibit marks the first time that these rare treasures will come to the Midwest. Don’t Miss Out!

Tour Includes:
All Attractions,
Continental Breakfast
Lunch Cruise
Travel via Motorcoach

Departs:
Kendallville
Auburn
Ft. Wayne