We're on our way to a Wisconsin Getaway. A drive around the out skirts of Chicago to just across the border to Lake Geneva, WI. Visit Black Point Estate-the vacation home of Chicago beer baron Conrad Siepp, a German immigrant, began brewing beer in Chicago in 1854 and quickly rose to become one of the country's leading beer barons. We'll visit the first two floors of this beautiful Queen Anne-style summer cottage, considered one of the finest examples of period architecture and furniture in the Midwest, and one of the oldest mansions in Lake Geneva. A Special Evening as we enjoy Dinner and show at the Dancing Horses Theater, an enchanting Vegas-style performance featuring an array of horse breeds who perform alongside their trainers in a cavalcade of equestrian artistry.

Day 2: A visit to the Geneva Lake Museum situated inside the historic Power & light building, the museum replicates Lake Geneva's Main Street from the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Walk the brick-paved streets of yester-year, lined with the Georgian and Italianate architecture homes and businesses representing the Geneva Lake area from 1890 to 1980; a snapshot of everyday life of "days gone by". It's time for a 2 1/2 hour cruise aboard the Grand Belle on Lake Geneva, and it's 20 miles of shoreline while our expert guides share fascinating stories, fun facts, and a bit of local lore along the way. Perfect for history buffs, curious travelers, and families with older children, you'll learn about the lake's most renowned estates, including the famous six-home Wrigley mansions, dating back to 1873. A evening at Fireside Dinner Theater for "The Church Basement Ladies in the Last (Potluck) Supper". After a scrumptious buffet dinner we go back to 1979, the day of the church's Centennial Celebration, and past parishioners have gathered to share hotdish, bars, and stories from the last 100 years. As the women work in the kitchen, shared memories burst into life through a series of flashbacks. Day 3: We'll make our way home, but not before a stop for Cheese at the Mars Cheese Castle and Kringles from O&H Bakery. No adventure to Wisconsin is complete without these tasty stops.
